

ADMITS MURDERS AT CRIPPLE CREEK

Robert Romaine Makes Detailed Confession to Officials at Omaha.

NAMES HIS ACCOMPLICES.

Says Twelve Men Were Concerned in Plot That Caused Independence and Vindictive Mine Horror.

Topeka, Kas., Sept. 9.—B. F. Stiegel, alias Robert Romaine, a deposed Colorado miner, under arrest here for burglary, has confessed to the County Attorney complicity in the Independence deposit and the Vindicator mine explosions in the Cripple Creek district last June, by which fifteen nonunion miners were killed outright and others injured.

Romaine says he helped to place the dynamite and wires running beneath the deposit, by which the charge was set off. Romaine gave the names of twelve men who, he alleges, were implicated with him in the plot.

BELL SUSPECTED ROMAINE.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Sept. 8.—Stiegel, Bell said to-day of Stiegel or Romaine: "We know positively that Romaine worked in the district while the strike was on, and he was present at the organization of the Western Federation of Miners. He had long been under suspicion."

HAS SERVED PRISON TERM.

Canon City, Colo., Sept. 9.—Robert B. Romaine was sentenced to the State Penitentiary from Pueblo for burglary in March, to serve four to four years. He was discharged in July, 1903, having served 10 months. He was born at Hamburg, Germany, and at the time he entered the prison was 24 years of age.

MORE MEN FOR ZEIGLER.

Swedes Take Place of Those Who Desert the Mines.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Douglas, Ill., Sept. 9.—Fifteen nonunion miners and their families were taken into Zeigler this morning over the Illinois Central. They were Swedes from Northern Minnesota.

They occupied a coach of the Great Northern and were guarded by Leiter's agents.

Several men dissatisfied with conditions at Zeigler have gone to the mines. The Leiter's state that the output of coal at the Zeigler mine is greatly handicapped by the immense amount of gas, the explosions of which during the last few weeks have seriously injured many miners.

POSTAL CLERKS ELECT OFFICERS

Arthur J. Donohue of Chicago
President of the United National Association.

At the closing session of the United National Association of Post-office clerks yesterday the following officers were elected: Arthur J. Donohue, Chicago, president; Forest L. May, Dayton, O.; Martin A. Desmond, St. Louis, and John G. Baker, Cleveland, O., vice presidents; R. C. Loefler, Chicago, secretary; Peter Wayne, New York, treasurer, and Morris Ruth, Buffalo, N. Y., sergeant-at-arms.

An advisory board consisting of John Cannon of Philadelphia, Harris C. Brown of Connecticut, C. S. Jones of Michigan, Thomas French of Boston, and Andrew D. Nashua, Tex., were chosen.

It was voted by the association that $200 be presented to the retiring president, Frank Rogers, who is at present in poor health.

Among the resolutions adopted were: That an eight week's vacation be granted to each member; that the annual convention should be held in August; that members engaged in night work be made to work more than six weeks during the year; that a monthly publication be issued; that a pension be given to members.

Other resolutions provided that the Association should be instructed to work in harmony with the Civil Service Commission toward the securing of pensions for retired post-office clerks; the election of a representative to the Postmaster General; and that the Postmaster General be instructed to include in their reports work other than merely clerical.

Last night the members of the association were present at a smoker at Hartman Hall, while the lady members attempted to raise money for the Louisiana Purchase.

Many of the members of the association will remain in St. Louis several days to see the World's Fair.
